W. P. WALTON.

THE apothegm that all things come to him who waits should be changed to the U.S. Senatorship sometimes comes to him, who eternally persists and is willing to make any kind of pledge to secure it. A few years ago W. J. Deboe was an obscure doctor eking out a precarious existence by looking at people's tongues and feeling their pulses. The business didn't suit either his pocket book or his fancy and he turned his attention to the law. This too proved unremunerative and he fell to officeseeking. After many attempts and as many failures, he was finally elected school superintendent of Crittenden admit its appropriateness.

THE Louisville Commercial is the most inconsistent of sheets. It says that the appointment of Capt. A DISPATCH from Frankfort says that the Hon. W. H. Lyons, of Newport, is to be Senator Deboe's private secretary and that in securing his services the Senator evens up things. He can't talk and the Hon. William can't do anything else, that is to say if Hanna's man Taylor, of Ohio, is good authority. CONVENTION.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS OF THE EIGHTH DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY.

The following is a little late, but it was not received till Friday, with request for publication:

The third annual convention of endeavorers of the 8th district of Kentucky met at Hustonville, April 23-25. The whole convention was in harmony with their motto, "I Can do all Things entertainment covered themselves with Kirby. glory. The little town was suddenly increased by nearly 100 temporary residents; yet all were happy and each thought his place of entertainment the best of all, and to this was added the hearty welcome of Rev. W. W. Bruce. It was a deeply spiritual convention and will long be remembered by the delegates, because of the presence of such a man as Rev. Ira Landrith.

The convention opened with the Friday afternoon session and the evening session grew intensely interesting, as Mr. Landrith explained the "planks" of Christian Endeavor adopted by Rev. F. E. Clark. The sunrise prayer meeting on Saturday, led by Mr. Landrith, was deeply spiritual, when many re-consecrated themselves to God and new souls were born into the kingdom. The meeting came almost to a white heat of spiritual fever at the Saturday morning session, when Mr. Landrith gave his address on "Missions," after which, if he had asked for volunteers to rise, I believe that many true endeavorers would have arisen.

With the Saturday afternoon session cane the business and the reports of lie McKenzie "Tom," Lillie Taylor, the officers and societies. In the 8th district there are 21 societies, 18 senior and three junior societies; 19 of this number were represented at this convention. In all there are about 500 endeavorers in the district. The reports from the various societies show that most all are alive and active and doing Golden Hair." Miss Lena Newcomb, some definite work for the poor at home, for foreign missions and prison work, etc. The work of the junior was full of interest. The junior at Perryville (?) raised flowers and sent them to the hospitals in the large cities, the R. R. carrying them free. They also made and collected clothing for the

The Saturday evening exercises consisted of several short addresses on vital subjects, like the following: "The Sympathetic Christ;" "Three Essentials of a Christian Endeaver Society;' "The Pledge;" "Christian fellowship," "Consecration."

The Sunday began with a sunrise DR. W. B. PENNY, prayer meeting, those bright stars in every convention, for when the mind is fresh and free from all care, then we can worship God best. At the regular time the delegates scattered to the various Sunday Schools and morning church services. As we drew closer to the consecration service, everything seemed to be coming to a climax.

The Sabbath afternoon service consisted of some heart to heart talks, which led up to the night service. Miss Nannie C. Caldwell's talk, "Saved to Serve" and another address on temperance, thrilled the attendants with inspiration to larger things. The temperance lecturer said that a man advised him not to take too active a part in their struggle for local option, for he would hurt his trade, but he responded: 'I have merchandise for sale, but not one spark of character." After this lecture prayers were asked for special blessings on the evening consecration service, and it was evident to all present that these prayers were answered for not withstanding the hard rain the church was full. The meeting was led by Mr. Fred O. Wallis, and it was a glorious sight to see one endeavorer after another consecrate his life to Pension & Claim Agent, God's service. When it was asked that those rise who were willing to go where ever God would call them, at least 20, Has had 12 years's practice before all the in silence rose and gave their young lives to God.

After the consecration service the best convention ever held in the Eighth district was closed with that closing song, "God Be With You Till We Meet J. M. C. Again" and MIZPAH.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine often averts long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at W. B. McRoberts Drug Store.

The temperance mass meeting of Monday evening was well attended and and Charlottsville and may if they deeffected much good. A band of chil- sire, stop off at Covington, Va., and visdren sang a lovely temperance song, Miss Lena McClure sang, "Where is My Wandering Boy To-night," and Miss May Miller sang the reply, "He's Down in a Licensed Saloon." Numerous talks were made by men and women, who have the welfare of our city at heart.

A good crowd attended the R. G. Williams Medal Contest, notwithstanding the inclement weather. Miss Rissie Williams was awarded the medal and Miss Della Arnold second prize. The judges were Misses Georgia Me-Ferran, Roberta Martin and Mr. C. C. Davis. The following little girls and boys took part in the contest and all acquitted themselves well: Nannie Carmical recited "Your Mission," McKenzie Brown, "Home Sweet Home," Char-"Barbara Greitchen," Jack Adams. The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

From the Fairhaven, N. Y., Register: Mr. James Rowland, of this village, states that for 25 years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of his purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it al-ways gives relief. He says that no mediine which she had used ever did her as much good.
